HILLSBORO, OHIO:

Wednesday, May 21, '84.

For President.
Hon. John Sherman,
OF OHIO.

Subject to the decision of the National Republican Convention.

Republican State Ticket.

[Election, Tuesday, October 14.]

For Secretary of State,
JAMES H. ROBINSON, of Hadin.

Judge of Supreme Court,
WILLIAM W. JOHNSON, of Lawrence.

Member Board of Public Works,
C. A. FLICKINGER, of Defiance.

Elector-at-Large,
JOHN BEATTY, of Franklin.
JAMES M. COMLY, of Lucas.

Bismarck has resigned the Presidency of the German Cabinet and the Emperor has appointed as his successor Boetticher, the Prussian Minister of State.

France has already brought China to terms and the Celestials give the French a protectorate over Tonquin, but without indemnity for the expenses of the war.

T. C. Campbell, Esq., of Cincinnati, the "great criminal lawyer," who was the leading counsel for Berner, has been indicted for bribing one of the jurors who tried the case. He pleaded not guilty and has employed Judge Foraker as his counsel.

Hon. M. J. Williams, of Washington, C. H., has been employed to assist Prosecuting Attorney Hire as counsel for the State in the Harris murder case, which will probably be tried at the present term of Court. It is understood that Judge Minshall, of Chillicothe will try the case.

The bill placing General Grant on the retired list of the army at the full pay of the rank of General, passed both houses of Congress last week, without a dissenting voice, thus securing him and his family a handsome support for life and proving that Republics are not always ungrateful.

Major Bickham, of the Dayton Journal, who has been one of ex-Speaker Keifer's warmest friends, has written him a letter advising him not to seek a re-nomination for Congress on the ground that his unpopularity would endanger his defeat and injure Republican prospects throughout the State. It is understood however, that Keifer is very anxious to run and will, if he can get the nomination, in spite of the sensible advice of his warmest friends.

Mr. Gladstone barely escaped defeat in the British House of Commons last week on the motion for a vote of censure upon the Government on account of its Egyptian policy and especially its apparent neglect to provide for the safety of General Gordon. Mr. Gladstone made a powerful speech in defence of his policy and denied that the Government had ever intended to abandon Gordon, but the vote of censure was only defeated by a majority of 28, a very narrow escape when it is considered that the Government majority has heretofore been over one hundred. Unless General Gordon is soon relieved the overthrow of the Gladstone ministry seems certain, but as expeditions to Kartoum are now under way, they may arrive in time to save him and reinstate Mr. Gladstone in public favor.

As the Chicago Convention draws near, the feeling seems to be gaining ground that the nomination of a "dark horse" is probable, and that Robert T. Lincoln will be the fortunate man, or it may be Judge Gresham, or Senator Harrison, of Indiana, with General Hawley, of Connecticut or some Eastern man for Vice-President. It is thought all the most prominent candidates will be unable to command sufficient strength and that therefore a compromise candidate will be necessary.

The Columbus and Midland Railroad is being pushed with great energy, and will probably be finished by next fall. Construction trains are running from Washington C. H. north as far as Bloomingsburg and west towards Wilmington. When the road is finished to Clinton Valley, four miles east of Blanchester, the track between Westboro and Blanchester will be taken up and a new road built from Westboro to Clinton Valley, a distance of only 1 1/2 miles. This will save 6 1/2 miles in going from Hillsboro east to Greenfield, and will also give us a shorter and more direct line to Columbus via Wilmington and Washington C. H.

Senator Sherman's Chances Improving.

Ex-Governor Foster is reported as saying in New York last week, that Senator Sherman has become a formidable candidate since the late panic in Wall street. His great ability as a financier is causing the solid business men of the country to turn to him as the safest leader, when there is any danger of serious disturbances in monetary affairs. An able letter from New York published in last Monday's Commercial Gazette signed "German-American Republicans," forcibly urges the nomination of Mr. Sherman for the same reason and says that he is the decided first choice of nearly a million German voters, who in National elections always vote the Republican ticket. The great personal popularity of Mr. Sherman among the Germans of this State, is also well known and there is no question that he could carry Ohio by a much larger majority than any other candidate. The importance of Ohio, as a factor in deciding the Presidential election by her vote in October, is conceded on all hands, and should Mr. Blaine fail to receive the nomination as now seems probable, there is nothing more likely than a combination between his friends and those of Mr. Sherman, which would give the latter the nomination. For these and other reasons, the prospects of Mr. Sherman are evidently brightening as the Convention draws near, and Ohio may again be called upon to furnish the candidate who is to lead the Republican hosts to victory.

To the Public.

This certifies that Mrs. E. Taylor and her husband, Nelson Taylor, are lawfully authorized to distribute our circulars and collect contributions to liquidate the indebtedness of the Wesley M. Church, of Richmond, Indiana, under my directions.

Respectfully, S. M. SMOTHERS, Pastor and Gen'l Agent.

Council Proceedings.

GOVERNOR CHAMBER, May 19, 1884.
Council met pursuant to adjournment, all present.

The ordinance to provide against the evils resulting from the sale of intoxicating liquors was read the second time. A motion was made to suspend the rule and to read it the third time, but not receiving the required vote motion was lost.

Councilman Mather presented the following pledge signed by all of the Council:
We, the undersigned members of the Council of the Incorporated Village of Hillsboro, Ohio, do hereby pledge ourselves to vote for the prohibition ordinance now before the Council, if a majority of the legal voters of the Village of Hillsboro, Ohio, vote in favor of the same at an election to be held at the usual voting places on the 1st day of June, 1884, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 7 p. m., and that the Mayor be requested to call a meeting of the Council to take action upon the ordinance on the first Monday following the aforesaid election.
The question of the time and mode of holding said election was left to be determined on at the next meeting.
James Colvin was appointed weighmaster of the High street scales.
The following bills were allowed:
Highland News Co publishing Mayor's proclamation $7 00
M. M. Williams printing placards 2 00
Jas Clark cleaning streets 2 25
M. McMillan 4 50

A STRANGE HORSEMAN!

One bright and beautiful morning, near the beginning of spring, an aged man, with calm and determined demeanor, his black hair, now tinged with grey, in keeping with iron grey beard, while his jet black eye was rolling first to the right, then to the left, as if determined to see everything that could be seen, while his noble horse, also jet black, was prancing along the highway as if eager to annihilate space and reach his destination. A man of such commanding appearance, mounted on such a noble charger, would soon attract attention. In fact men would speak to him, women would look through their half open doors after him, while the boys were simply excited. The stranger would notice none of these things, would answer no questions, but kept up his pace. The men held consultation and determined to follow this mysterious person. Keeping him at a distance, but well in sight, while their number was constantly increasing, at last a city was reached, when the stranger tied his horse to a convenient rack, while the crowd of men were doing the same. He made his way into a store, and for the first time he spoke to the boys as follows, to wit:

"Young men, I knew you were following me, and having had many years experience more than any of you, I wanted to lead you into this Palace Hardware, Implement and Store of Kibler & Haghey, where the best line of goods at lower prices can always be had than at any other store in Southern Ohio."
